Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 21.—Warrants were issued today for 17 former city officials charging them with accepting bribes in connection with the famous Garman-Cameron scheme for supplying the city with water from Lake Michigan. The following three were indicted: Former Mayor George B. Perry, State Senator David Burns, Corey P. Bishop, former member of board of public works and the following ex-aldermen, who were in office when attempt was made to put water deal through: James McColl, Peter Depagter, Jacob Ellen, Malachi Kinney, John T. Donovan, Jacob Mol, Abraham Ghysels, Charles Johnson, Ryner Stonehouse, Daniel Loser, John McLachin, Clark Slocum, John Muir, and Adrien Shirver.

THE CHICAGO STRIKE.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 21.—It is believed that a settlement of the street car strike here is in sight. Four trunk lines of the company's cars were run yesterday, and a conference was held between representatives of the two sides, and an agreement made on everything but two points, which it is believed will be settled today. The strikers accepted the following before the street car company would agree to a conference:

First—That the company shall have the right to discipline and discharge its employees as it shall choose, but this shall not be construed to mean that any discrimination is made against union men or non-union men. Second—That the company shall formulate the methods by which grievances of its employees shall be adjusted in the future.

BIG STRIKE THREATENED.

New York, Nov. 21.—As a result of the collapse in the negotiations between the iron league and union of housemiths and bridgemen, looking to a settlement of the local labor troubles, it is stated by labor leaders that a general strike of the structural iron workers is to be ordered today all over the country, with the expectation of calling out 20,000 men within next few days and throwing out of employment at least 100,000.

MILLER AND JOHNS ACQUITTED

Cincinnati, Nov. 21.—The first trials of alleged postal swindlers resulted in a verdict for acquittal yesterday afternoon in the cases against D. V. Miller of Terre Haute, Ind., and Joseph M. Johns, of Rockville, Ind. They were charged with trying to extort a bribe from John J. Ryan.

GOMPERS RE-ELECTED.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 21.—Samuel Gompers was today re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor by a large plurality.

DEATH NEAR CALVERT.—Mrs. Lou House, wife of Thomas House, aged 28, died yesterday afternoon near Calvert City, of consumption. She left a husband and four children. The burial will take place tomorrow morning at the Bethlehem cemetery.

How Merchants Save Money by Going Back to Old Methods

Two Large Teams Are Run Between Paducah and Mayfield to Carry Freight.

DO A BIG BUSINESS

According to the Mayfield Messenger, all evidences of old times and methods of transportation have not quite vanished in this section, as there is run regularly between Paducah and Mayfield three times a week, what is known as the "McClain Overland Train."

The train consists of two or more wagons owned by Captain T. L. McClain, and they are drawn by six horses or mules, and the larger one brings 10,000 pounds at a time and the smaller vehicle, which has two mules, hauls 4,000 pounds a load.

He hauls for a number of merchants, but principally, it is said, for Covington Brothers, who have a branch house in Mayfield and do a thriving business.

Says the Messenger:

"The McClain train brings freight to the merchants where it has to be delivered about over town, at 22 cents per 100 pounds and to Covington Bros., where it is hauled in large quantities on contract and all unloaded at one time and place at 18 cents per hundred, whereas the same goods on the railroad would cost from 16 to 30 cents or an average of about 24 or 25 cents per 100 pounds.

"Covington Bros. & Co. say their savings amount to much in a year by having their goods shipped over the McClain Route."

NEW MEMBER

Dr. Jesse Gilbert Sworn in as Police Commissioner.

The Board Meets Monday to Transact Much Business.

The board of police and fire commissioners met last night in Mayor D. A. Yeiser's office but nothing was done as the council and board of aldermen met as a committee of the whole and required the services of Mayor Yeiser and Clerk Patterson.

The commissioners had adjourned, when Dr. Jesse Gilbert, the newly appointed commissioner, arrived, but went into session again long enough to see Mr. Gilbert sworn in and then adjourned until Monday night when the board will meet with a full quorum and transact much important business.

On Monday night the commissioners will in all probability elect two firemen lately ordered added to the fire departments. It is possible that the extra firemen now serving will be promoted to these positions and new extra men elected. The board will, however, do nothing towards appointing police and firemen until the regular time the first of the year.

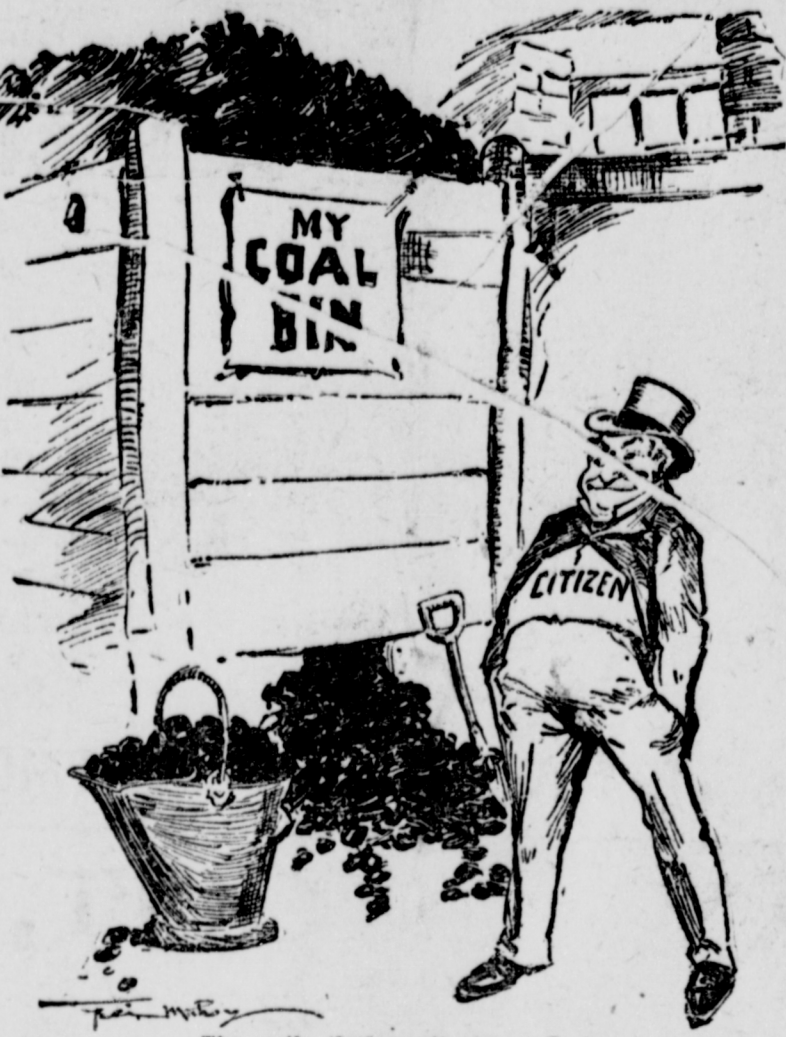

Mayor Yeiser has referred the matter of buying two new fire department horses to Dr. H. C. Warner, the veterinary surgeon, who has brought several horses to the city but they proved unsatisfactory. He is still working to secure the right kind of stock and thinks by next week he will have two suitable animals for the department.

THE DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 21.—A caucus of Democratic Senators held last night, resulted in a decision to consider the Cuban bill on its merits and not bring in any collateral issues, meaning that there will be no bills for tariff reform. It is believed the term will adjourn Wednesday.

NEW BOX INSTALLED.—A new fire alarm box, No. 55, has been placed at Ashbrook avenue and Bridge street, Mechanicsburg, by Chief Wood, as ordered by the board.

ALL RIGHT SO FAR THIS YEAR.

Wholesalers report business as very good. This is the case in all lines. Collections are fair. Cooler weather has stimulated the moving of retail stocks, and also given wholesale trade an impetus.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s report of business over the country shows conditions very favorable to good business, and improvement in most lines. There have been some reductions made in wage scales and labor has accepted them with the right spirit.

Local retail trade is good. Some holiday trade is noticeable, and the indications are for a big trade in all lines.

MEETING ADJOURNED

NO SESSION OF THE COMMERCIAL CLUB HELD LAST NIGHT.

The meeting of the Commercial club last night to elect new directors was postponed until Tuesday night, as many of the members attended the meeting of the general council, and others did not care to wait until the meeting was over.

Col. J. J. Dorian leaves today for Owensboro to attend the installation of a lodge of Knights of Columbus.

WHEEL CAME OFF

AND A SCHOOL TRUSTEE-ELECT WAS BADLY HURT.

Mr. J. H. Renfro, the grocer and newly elected school trustee of Broad street, was driving in his wagon this morning when a wheel came off and threw him to the ground. He was badly bruised about the hips and side but is not seriously injured. Dr. J. S. Troutman dressed the injury.

Mr. Barney Dreyfuss left for Louisville at noon after a visit here.

FATAL CUT OF KNIFE BIG SCHOOL RALLY

Caused the Death of Charles R. Burgess in City Hospital.

Was Cutting Beef When He Cut His Hand—Died in City Hospital.

WAS EX-FEDERAL SOLDIER.

Charles R. Burgess, the paper hanger and sign painter, died at the city hospital this morning at 3 o'clock from blood poisoning. He was doing some work on the market recently when he accidentally cut himself on the wrist while cutting down a ham to paint the ceiling as one of the butcher stalls.

Blood poisoning set in and his condition became such that his forearm had to be amputated at the city hospital yesterday.

Owing to the shock and his weak physical condition he became worse, and died this morning.

He was about 50 years old, and had been working about the city for some time. He was in the 14th Illinois Infantry, Co. E, during the civil war, and drew a pension.

Mr. Burgess was carried to the city hospital from his room over Gourie's saloon at Third and Washington streets a week ago.

He came here from St. Louis about 10 years ago. He was married in St. Louis about 30 years ago to a Russian Jewess, who died some time ago. One son of this marriage, Mr. Paul Burgess of this city survived him. He was supposed to have considerable money and several life insurance policies. He left relatives in Winchester, Ill., who were notified of his death, and a telegram was received this morning signed T. H. and E. Flynn directing that the body be shipped to Winchester for burial. The body is now at Nance and Spaulding's undertaking establishment, and will probably be shipped to Winchester tomorrow.

THROUGH AGAIN

O. C. OFFICIALS PLEASED WITH THE LOUISVILLE DIVISION.

The main line inspectors passed Paducah over the I. C. from Louisville again yesterday about 3:50 o'clock, enroute south and this will be the last inspection of the main line until next November.

The train first passed through Thursday night from Fulton arriving late in the night and yesterday morning an early start was made out of Louisville, Paducah being reached in a remarkably short time. As far as could be learned the inspectors were well pleased with the condition of the Louisville division. All the freight congestion has been remedied and the tracks were comparatively clear. The Tennessee division is still blocked to some extent with cars of freight, but the trains are kept moving and the freight is gradually being moved south.

The inspectors went to Fulton from Paducah about 4 o'clock and will turn back to Chicago from there. They had been out nearly two weeks and have completed a thorough inspection of the main line.

CASE COMPROMISED.

AND AS A RESULT THE GERMAN VILLAGE IS RELEASED.

The Avritt saloon, known as the German Village, on North Tenth street, has been turned over to the owner by Sheriff Lee Potter who had a few days before closed it upon an attachment.

Mrs. Avritt had filed a suit for divorce against her husband and asked for an attachment on the saloon. The papers were placed in the sheriff's hands and he closed the place, the owner not being able to give bond. The suit was compromised by the plaintiff and she secured the dismissal of the suit in court and the discharge of the attachment.

Hundreds of Children Enjoy Day at Lone Oak.

Several Wagon Loads of City Children Attend—Many from the County, Also.

PROFESSOR EVANS SPEAKS

Prof. Charles Evans, of Marion, Ky., a well known educator, passed through the city this morning en route to Lone Oak where the McCracken county school rally is being held.

The rally will prove the biggest event in the county school history, and several thousand school children with their teachers and parents will be at Lone Oak to partake of the picnic dinner and hear the speeches. Prof. Evans will be the orator of the day but there will be other speakers to talk.

A brass band was secured here and went out this morning to make music for the crowd. A number of pupils from Paducah with their teachers and friends went out about 10 o'clock this morning. A parade was given through the streets of the city before the stars was made, there being several big wagon loads of merry, attractive children carrying flags.

The program arranged for the day is an attractive one, and the young people will spend one of the happiest days in their history. The crowd is the largest ever at Lone Oak.

NOT FINISHED

THE LICENSE COMMITTEE IS STILL AT WORK ON CHANGES.

The joint license committee of the general council is not yet through with its work of revising the license ordinance. It has been discovered that a number of businesses have not been licensed in the past, but they will be this year.

Aldermen Singleton, Kirchoff, Smith and Stark, and Councilmen Niehaus and Potter are on the committee, and it is understood that where licenses last year brought in $30,000 in revenue to the city, this year they will be so elevated as to bring in $45,000.

Some of the proposed changes are: Increase wholesale liquor establishments, from $25 to $100 per year, loan associations from $10 to $50 per year, stockyards from $25 to $50, commission establishments from $100 to $500, lumber dealers from $10 to $25, waterworks from $25 to $100, ice factory from $10 to $100, cold storages from $10 to $100, Armour's packing house from $25 to $100.

A number of businesses were not included in the old ordinance, such as mattress factories, which were placed at $5, poultry houses that were placed at $100, and breweries that were placed at $100.

Still other businesses will be attended to later.

ARRESTED AGAIN

WILLIS STRICKLAND CHARGED WITH PETTY LARCENY.

Willis Strickland, colored, who was arrested yesterday for stealing Charles Ellerbrook's overcoat from Sherrill's saloon, was arrested again this morning and locked up on a petty larceny charge.

Strickland had kept the disposition of the stolen garments a secret and as the officers could not at that time find where the clothes were, released him before a warrant was issued. More information was secured, a warrant issued and Strickland arrested. The value of the clothes has been fixed at $15. It is claimed that Strickland, after stealing the coat, sold it to another negro and sneaked back and stole it again.

THEATRICAL WORLD.

MISS HELEN GRANTLY.

Next week at the Kentucky:
Monday night: Miss Helen Grantly in "In the Palace of the King."
Wednesday night: Miss Eva Mountford, in "When Her Soul Speaks."
Thanksgiving matinee and night: Harry Beresford, in "The Professor's Love Story," both performances.
Saturday matinee and night: The Lyman Twins and Patti Ross, in the musical comedy, "At The Races."

A glance at the opposite page will show nearly a page of advertisements of four of the best theatrical attractions travelling, that comes to the Kentucky next week, each one being entirely different, giving a great diversity of amusements for "Thanksgiving week."

Lewis Morrison's name has been so long associated with the part of His Satanic Majesty in "Faust" that millions are as familiar with his matchless performance as they are with the beauties of his dramatized version of Goethe's story. In a short time Lewis Morrison himself will appear here in his new production of "Faust."

The Huntington W. Va., Advertiser says:

The best theatrical performance that has been given at the Huntington theatre during the present season was "That Imprudent Young Couple," produced by Miss May Sargent and her company last night.

The play, a comedy of modern life, is an excellent one. Harry English and May Sargent in the two leading parts did especially excellent work. The play comes to Paducah next month.

The title "A Royal Slave," suggests a story of the Sunny South, embodying all that is wooling in the song of the nightingale; all that is lovely in the tropic land of Mexico, with its sighing palms and soft vistas of purple leagues; all that is beautiful and grand in nature.

The cast is headed by Mr. Louis Lytton, one of the best of the romantic actors, and Miss Pasquata DeVoe, last season with the "Quincy Adams Sawyer" company.

The plot of the play is most novel and original, and there is a strong vein of comedy running through it, which leads greatly to its success.

A treat that is offered the theatre going public is in store for them when the famous comedians "The Lyman Twin Brothers" are seen here in their musical comedy success "At the Races" which they are appearing in this season and which is said to be one of the funniest and most elaborate productions of this class yet produced, comprising a good company, a dainty chorus of pretty girls, funny comedians, singers and dancers together with numerous novelties entirely new and original with this attraction. The pretty scenery, magnificent costuming intermingled with catchy music, sweet singing and a dazzling display of electrical effects transforming the graceful dances into a blaze of wondrous splendor carried along by side splitting situations and a funny story to make up one of the greatest comedy productions of the day.

The Daily Item of New Orleans

says: Perhaps no amusement purveyor is better liked and known throughout the South than Al G. Field. For years he has opened the Opera Houses in all the principal cities between the Gulf and the Ohio river, and the same story follows him everywhere—packed houses. Like the South in the past fifteen or twenty years Al G. Field has been growing greater and richer every day. His minstrel company is accorded to be by the press and patrons the one first-class, clean, wholesome entertainment in its line. Fathers and brothers have no hesitancy in permitting their daughters or sweethearts to visit the Al G. Field Minstrels. They know from the rise of the curtain to the fall that not the faintest suspicion of vulgarity will creep into a Field performance, and Field has fully demonstrated that a show can be successful without resorting to questionable methods. Al Field comes to the Kentucky soon.

Miss Eva Mountford and her play "When Her Soul Speaks" will be the attraction at the Kentucky on Wednesday night. Miss Mountford comes to us as an actress of splendid reputation, of attractive face and form, and a representative of all that is best in the drama today. In the role she will portray in "When Her Soul Speaks," an emotional one, her ability will have wide scope. One of the leading critics of the country, after seeing Miss Mountford said, "the soul of acting is there, and the trifling tricks which spoil our modern school, sink into insignificance when the simple, direct appeal of such a player as this makes the people start from their seats and stare at her with open mouths." Her style has the same gigantic force and irresistible sincerity that made the triumphs of Clara Morris twenty years ago. The play "When Her Soul Speaks" is a woman's play. It possesses passions and emotions of the strongest, and still does not come under the head of the tearful drama. It is the story of a woman's soul suffering injustice, but always striving for the right. Miss Mountford's company contains some sort of the best material in the profession, among the members of which may be mentioned Elmer Grandin, Phillips Smalley, Morgan Hewitt, Edward Barrett, Will Graham, Charles Rennels, Miss Virginia Bray, Miss Julia Clancy, Mrs. A. Okey Hall, Miss Mabel Bell, and others.

The Charlotte (N. C.) Daily Observer, in a recent issue says of Mr. Harry Beresford in "The Professor's Love Story":

It is not enough to say that this is the most pleasing attraction that has come to the Academy this season, and the audience—which was large for Saturday night—was far too small when one considers the worth of the play and the players.

The play is like everything else that Mr. Barrie ever wrote—clean, wholesome, clever and strong. It is original both in conception and in details. There is about it a quaint, rare charm that fascinates. The professor is so absent minded, so helpless and gentle and fine, that he must be pitied if he were not admired so much; and the characters who surround him are so delightfully varied and yet fit in so nicely in making the play complete in every respect.

The cast was very good, indeed. There can be nothing but praise for Mr. Beresford. He seemed not so much to act his part as to be it—in all naturalness. His art is quite distinctive and true; and he is a successful young actor whose work gives promise of a brilliant future. The other parts were well sustained and no jarring contrast was there to mar the roundness of the production. Miss Batchelder was altogether attractive as the secretary. One of the strongest characters was Mr. Wesner as Dr. Cosiens—a part not overdone nor underdone and likable in every particular. The other leading parts were quite up to the mark; and the minor characters made the most of frequent opportunities for droll, delicious humor.

"In the Palace of the King" was written originally for Miss Viola Allen and will be presented in this city together with all the original scenery costumes and effects that characterized the production that ran for 200 nights in New York City.

"In the Palace of the King" is a romantic drama and the story is laid at the time of Philip II, who was King of Spain and half the world besides. The action is intensely dramatic. Dona Maria Dolores de Mendoza and Don Juan of Austria love each other since their infancy. He has returned from the wars in France after many years, and they love each other still. In the way of their love are his rank, the hatred of him by the King, the hatred of Dona Maria by the Princess of Eboli and all the women of the court. Her father, Captain Mendoza of the King's guards, opposes the union on account of his love for Philip. Her sister, Dona Inez, who is

THE BOND COMMITTEE

Was Sat Down Upon by General Council Last Night.

No Outside Attorney to Be Paid for Bringing the Suit, Which Will Be Ex parte Petition.

BLACK EYE FOR COMMITTEE

The usual manner in which Paducah's legislative boards transact business was demonstrated again last night when the aldermen and council met as a committee of the whole and gave a black eye to the bond committee, composed of Councilman Hummel, Alderman Singleton and Citizen Cook. The committee authorized by the boards when they decided to refer the printing of the $150,000 bonds to be issued, to a committee to consist of two officials and two citizens.

The committee met Wednesday and decided, it seems, to file a suit with Mr. Stanley DuBois, president of the Commercial club, as plaintiff, against the city for the purpose of testing the bonds and thus enhancing their value. They employed Mr. J. C. Flournoy, the attorney, to bring the suit and very kindly decided to allow City Solicitor Werten to defend it for the city, a consideration which the solicitor doubtless should greatly appreciate.

The general council met as a committee of the whole last night with Councilman Potter chairman, and sat down on the bond committee by repudiating its action in employing an outside attorney at an extra fee to bring the suit, and repudiated the committee's action in deciding to use the name of Mr. DuBois as plaintiff in the suit. The city solicitor explained that all necessary to do was to bring an ex parte petition and allow the solicitor to look after it, which he is paid a salary to do.

Attorney Flournoy was present last night and explained that he had been employed by the committee to bring the suit, as it had been deemed best to have the suit brought in the manner suggested. An ex parte petition, he said, would enable any citizen opposed to the bonds to come in and ask to be made a party to the action, and in this way possibly drag the bond suit into extended litigation and delay the suit, the bond issue and possibly the public improvement themselves indefinitely.

Councilman Hummel contended that the committee did not exceed its authority, but the original motions made and written out, showed that the bond committee which decided on the DuBois suit and employed Attorney Flournoy, was empowered simply to look after the printing of the bonds and nothing else.

committee and employ Mr. Flournoy at a cost of not over $200 was voted down, those against it being: Aldermen Durrett, Chamblin, Kirchoff, Riglesberger, Smith and Starks, Councilmen Reed, Brooks, Greif, Jackson, Johnson, Potter and Taylor.

The only two supporting the motion were Councilman Hummel and Alderman Singleton.

It is sure death and drives the rats and mice out of the house to die. DAILY AVERAGE, 2201.

Personally appeared before me this day E. J. Paxton, general manager of The Sun, who affirms that the above statement of the circulation of The Sun for the month of Oct., 1903, is true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

THE WEATHER.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday. Warmer tonight.

WHICH WILL IT BE?

Many taxpayers are guessing what is going to befall them about the first of the year, when the annual tax levy is taken up to raise the money to pay the salaries of those who are at the pie counter.

Year before last the tax rate was $1.85, and such a protest was raised that last year it was reduced to $1.65. The assessment of property had been boosted by the supervisors, however, and almost as much money was raised by the $1.65 as by the $1.85. Some people had to pay even more taxes. It was all spent, but for what no one can see except for the salaries that were all raised when the present administration took charge.

This year the people are guessing which will be raised, the tax rate or the property assessment. The city has already made a start, it seems, by boosting licenses until some of them are to be made five times what they now are. It is estimated that $15,000 extra is to be raised in this manner, "to pay the interest on the bonds." The city could much better afford to cut down some of the exorbitant annual department appropriations in the next tax levy and pay the interest from the money thus saved. For instance the expenditure of $20,000 or more a year on the streets is an outrage, and if nothing at all were spent on the streets, there would no doubt be just as good streets, and the people would be just as well satisfied as under the present system.

There are a lot of other departments where so much money is wasted that they have become veritable grafts, but with the proper kind of management it can all be done away with and the people can get something for their money.

Senator Hanna has again positively denied that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for president. He says in a letter to a former Ohioan now living in Kansas: "Please accept my thanks for your letter of congratulation upon the result of the recent election in Ohio. I consider the great victory there an endorsement of the principles and policies of the Republican party, and should find an echo in the campaign of next year. Certainly all who are interested in the prosperity of our country agree that the Republican party should be in power and Ohio has spoken unequivocally. While I am gratified by that element in the result which might be considered a personal vindication, it does not justify the claims of my friends with reference to the suggestions of my nomination for the presidency. I have no personal ambition to advance, and my desire to serve my party constrains me to ask my friends not to place me in the embarrassing position which would result from such a movement."

St. Louis hoodling seems to have extended even to the hospitals and insane asylums. Some idea of the power that is exerted for evil may be obtained from the statement of one who exposed the hospital graft. He said in the investigation: "I kept fussing with them for about a year, all the time getting some money and having a great deal of trouble with them. Finally I gave up entirely and went with them." This is the history of grafts epitomized. Usually the minor officials and employees, after "fussing" a bit, give up and "go with them."

The United States attorney who is alleged to have procured the indictment against Senator Dietrich, of Nebraska, has been called to Washington. It is not known why he was summoned, but if the senator's story is true, the attorney will probably realize that we have a rather strenuous president before he gets back to Nebraska.

General Wood may return from the Philippines to answer the charges urged against his promotion in the army. His friends claim there is nothing in the accusations, but these days when a public outcry is started the only way to satisfy the people is to show them.

Some of our local statesmen have a peculiar idea of cause and effect. According to report they object to taxing butchers for fear the butchers would elevate the price of meat to make their money back. Wonder how they think merchants and others who pay a license get their money back?

The American people will generally agree in regard to the Panama affair with the London Standard, which says our position is "a distinct gain for civilization, good order and the promotion of commerce."

Attorney Folk, of Missouri, has not yet clearly proven that he is a Democrat according to the Missouri standard. He has not been indicted or convicted for hoodling.

The country is in no danger from Socialism, as a St. Louis paper happily puts it, "so long as every American citizen hopes some day to be a millionaire."

MACHINERY OFFICIALS

VISIT PAID TO PADUCAH
WHERE INSPECTION IS MADE OF SHOPS.

Messrs. Joseph Baker and J. G. Kneuffer, assistants to Mr. Wm. Renshaw, general superintendent of machinery of the I. C., were in the city yesterday on business connected with the machinery department of the road.

This is Mr. Kneuffer's first trip to Paducah in the capacity of assistant superintendent of machinery, having been promoted to that position the first of the month. Both gentlemen have returned to Chicago after having completed their work here.

It is understood that they are visiting the shops where cuts have been made, to see the amount of work to be done and to estimate the number of workmen it will require to turn it out. The machinists have more work than they can possibly turn out this winter, they claim. It is not known what recommendations the inspectors will make in regard to the local shops.

A NEW CITIZEN

DR. ROBERT SORY TO BEGIN
PRACTICE HERE MONDAY.

Doctor and Mrs. Robert Sory, of Nortonville, will arrive in the city this afternoon to make Paducah their permanent residence. Mrs. Sory was formerly Miss Beulah Reddick and had been living at Nortonville where Dr. Sory was the official physician for the big mining company. He will go into partnership with Dr. J. T. Reddick immediately on his arrival here.

The Wilford will go into Tennessee on Monday. She arrived last night from the place with a tow of ties and is

The Toof Exparte Case up in

CIRCUIT COURT.

The action taken a few days ago in the ex parte suit of F. P. Toof against the city, which was to have the 10:30 closing ordinance construed by the court, has no significance, according to court officials. It seems that Mr. Toof and other good government leaguers filed an ex parte petition and the saloon men came in and asked to be made defendants and be allowed to file an answer. The court declined to allow the saloon men to file the answer, and the case was taken to the court of appeals and there reversed on this error, the court holding that they should have been permitted to file an answer.

The mandamus in the suit was filed a day or two ago, and this answer which they were not allowed to file, then came up and will be filed, but it is simply a precaution taken by the saloon men should the other side ever take up the matter again.

It is likely that the 10:30 ordinance will never be considered again, however, as even if the ordinance should be decided valid, and enforced, the new beards who go into office in January, would repeal the ordinance, having been elected as a "whiskey tick."

This morning Judge L. D. Husbands sustained the motion for a new trial in the case of Donnelly L. Carney against Eli Guthrie in which a judgment for $2,200 for damages, was secured this term of court. The case will come up for trial again next term under Judge Wm. Reed.

The following cases were continued: Pace, administrator, against Wood, two cases; Fristoe against Wood.

Julia Floyd was granted a divorce from Ben Floyd.

In the case of King against Bradley, the order of continuance was set aside and the case will be heard this term of court.

Judge Husbands has set the trial of the Register mandamus suit brought against Mayor D. A. Yeiser and Auditor Alex Kirkland for December 5 instead of the 7th.

POLICE COURT.

The breach of the peace case against John Holder, colored, who claimed he was playing with his wife who had him warranted for beating her, was dismissed.

Rice Miller, colored, was arraigned on the charge of petty larceny. He is charged with stealing a half side of bacon from Alex Storrie's grocery store. He was sentenced to 60 days in the city lockup.

COUNTY COURT.

M. Lena Englert today qualified as administratrix of the estate of John P. Englert.

M. Lena Englert today was appointed guardian for Bena, Richard, Annie, Clement, Herman and Louis Englert, all minors.

MEETING POSTPONED

ON ACCOUNT OF ABSENCE OF
MR. SAM JACKSON.

The meeting of the K. I. T. league officials which was originally called for Paducah to be held here tomorrow, has been postponed on account of the absence of Mr. Sam Jackson who is down in Mississippi hunting. Mr. Jackson received word from Secretary Faunbaker to the effect that the meeting had been postponed. It will be held next Sunday a week, it is thought, if Mr. Jackson has returned by that time. The object is to settle up the affairs of the league and plan for the future.

THE BIBLE BARRED.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 21.—The supreme court yesterday decided that sectarian knowledge cannot be imparted in the public schools and issued a writ of mandamus against a teacher in District No. 31 in Gage county ordering her to not read the Bible to her pupils.

SEEMSTOBE MUDDLED

Various Opinions as to the New Bond Issue.

No Certificate of the Election Filed
Until This Morning with Clerk Patterson.

DOUBT ABOUT ORDINANCES

It is probable that there will be nothing else done for awhile in regard to the suit to test the validity of the $200,000 in bonds to be issued by the city. A member of the committee appointed to look after the printing of the bonds said this morning that the action of the general council last night was right, as the committee was empowered to do nothing further than arrange for printing the bonds, and he opposed any action regarding the employment of an attorney when it came up before them several days ago.

It is claimed by all the attorneys on legal row who were asked about it today that if an individual suit should be brought by Mr. DuBois for the purpose of testing the bonds, any citizen, five hundred citizens or every citizen, could come in and ask to be made parties to it just the same as in an ex parte petition.

No activity on part of any citizen is anticipated however, as every taxpayer in the city, should he desire to oppose the will of the voters as expressed at the polls in November, can file an injunction suit, and fight the bond issue in the courts, but it is not believed any citizen would think of doing it, therefore the ex parte suit, as it will cost nothing, is generally regarded as sufficient for the purpose desired to be attained, and while anyone can come in and ask to be made a party to it, so could they if an individual suit were filed.

The boards do not yet seem to know quite where "they are at." They appear to have somewhat muddled things. Some claim that it will be necessary to pass ordinances providing for the bonds, the ordinance passed some time ago being only to authorize a vote.

Others claim that no further formalities are necessary, and that all that has to be done is to proceed to print the bonds and sell them. It is understood that the city solicitor is to render an opinion on this at the next council meeting.

City Clerk Patterson stated today that the election commissioners had not yet certified to the vote on the bond question, and that so far as the city official is concerned, it did not know whether the bond issue carried or not. Later on, when Mr. J. C. Flournoy was told of this, as secretary of the election commissioners he made out a certificate and filed it with Clerk Patterson.

Many claim that the best thing for the boards to do is to get straightened out and get their bearings, and before trying to arrange for the printing of the bonds to find out whether it is necessary to pass any additional ordinances, etc.

SUDDEN DEATH.

MR. CHARLES GLADFELTER,
AGED 20, DIES FROM CONGESTION.

Mr. Charles Gladfelter, aged 20, a son of Mr. M. P. Gladfelter and a well known young blacksmith, died this morning at 10:45 at his home, Seventh and Tennessee streets, from a congestive chill, after an illness of only three days. His death will come as a surprise to his many friends. To make it all the sadder, his mother is now dangerously ill at the home of Mrs. Lucy Smith, 1600 Harrison street from malarial fever. The young man was unmarried and a favorite with all who knew him.

The time of the funeral has not been set, but will probably be 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

CAPT. J. M. EZELL WORSE—The many friends of Captain James M. Ezell, license inspector, will regret to learn that he is again very ill at his home on North Fifth street. Captain Ezell seems to have caught a severe cold, and being in feeble health it resulted in a bad attack of grippe.

ADOPTED THE TWIN.

AND BUILT HIM UP.

A lady of Des Moines, Iowa, who recently adopted a baby boy had an experience in feeding the youngster that may prove interesting.

She says: "Three months ago I took a twin baby. He was so weak and puny at the time that I believed I would never be able to raise him.

"I found that the only food he could keep on his stomach was Grape Nuts and when I began to feed this regularly to him he began to thrive. In two weeks he showed marked improvement and he is now a fat healthy boy and has at last caught up with his twin sister who was always ruddy and healthy. He is certainly a fine little fellow, thanks to a fine pure and scientific food." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Grape Nuts contains all the constituents of a complete food and the whole is predigested, by a purely mechanical process, so the very weakest stomach will digest it. It is the most scientific food in the world, suited to all ages. See the recipe book in each package. Look in each package for a copy of the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

CAPT. COOK IS BEING HELD FOR RANSOM, IT SEEMS.

An unusual story comes from Martin, Tenn., the home of Captain H. H. Lovelace, the well known race horse owner, and owner of "Capt. Cook," the fine stallion stolen November 10. "Capt. Cook" is father of "Sir Edwin Arnold" and of horses owned by Mr. Dick Rudy, Dr. Harry Williamson and others in Paducah.

Today's dispatches from Martin, Tenn., state that the horse was stolen by a boy and held for ransom, Captain Lovelace being warned in a letter that unless he paid $1,000 his horse would be killed. He valued the animal at $25,000, and not believing that the animal would really be killed set friends to work on the case, and soon found that a boy had stolen the horse. The youth finally confessed, and agreed to restore the horse and leave the country never to return if not prosecuted, which he did. Captain Cook is now in his old place.

Tomorrow being the world's temperance Sunday, Rev. George O. THE SKY PILOT

The Duke was standing up before the doctor during this storm smiling slightly. All at once the smile faded out, and he pointed to the bed. Bruce was sitting up quiet and steady. He stretched out his hand to the Duke. "Don't mind the old fool," he said, holding the Duke's hand and looking up at him as fondly as if he were a girl. "It's my own funeral—funeral?" He paused. "Perhaps it may be—who knows?—feel queer enough—but, remember, Duke, it's my own fault. Don't listen to those bally fools," looking toward Moore and the doctor. "My own fault"—his voice died down—"my own fault."

The Duke bent over him and laid him back on the pillow, saying: "Thanks, old chap. You're good stuff. I'll not forget. Just keep quiet and you'll be all right." He passed his cool, firm hand over the hot brow of the man looking up at him with love in his eyes, and in a few moments Bruce fell asleep. Then the Duke lifted himself up and, facing the doctor, said in his coolest tone: "Your words are more true than opportunity, doctor. Your patient will need all your attention. As for my morals, Mr. Moore kindly intrusts himself with the care of them." This with a bow toward the Pilot. "I wish him joy of his charge," snorted the doctor, turning again to the bed where Bruce had already passed into delirium.

The memory of that vigil was like a horrible nightmare for months. Moore lay on the floor and slept. The Duke rode off somewhere. The old doctor and I kept watch. All night poor Bruce raved in the wildest delirium, singing now psalms, now songs, swearing at the cattle or his poker partners, and now and then, in the quieter moments, he was back in his old home, a boy, with a boy's friends and sports. Nothing could check the fever. It baffled the doctor, who often during the night declared there was no sense in a wound like that working up such a fever, adding curses upon the folly of the Duke and his Company. "You don't think he will not get better, doctor?" I asked, in answer to one of his outbursts.

"He ought to get over this," he answered impatiently. "But I believe," he added deliberately, "he'll have to go."

Everything stood still for a moment. It seemed impossible. "Two days ago full of life, now on the way out. There crowded in upon me thoughts of his home; his mother, whose letters he used to show me full of anxious love; his wild life here, with all its generous impulses, its mistakes, its folly."

"How long will he last?" I asked, and my lips were dry and numb.

"Perhaps twenty-four hours, perhaps longer. He can't throw off the poison." The old doctor proved a true prophet. After another day of agonized delirium he sank into a stupor which lasted through the night.

Then the change came. As the light began to grow at the eastern rim of the prairie and tip the far mountains in the west, Bruce opened his eyes and looked about upon us. The doctor had gone; the Duke had not come back; Moore and I were alone. He gazed at us steadily for some moments; read our faces. A look of wonder came into his eyes.

"Is it coming?" he asked in a faint, awed voice. "Do you really think I must go?"

The eager appeal in his voice and the wistful longing in the wide open, startled eyes were too much for Moore. He backed behind me and I could hear him weeping like a baby. Bruce heard him too.

"Is that the Pilot?" he asked. Instantly Moore pulled himself up, wiped his eyes and came round to the other side of the bed and looked down, smiling.

"Do you say I am dying?" The voice was strained in its earnestness. I felt a thrill of admiration go through me as the Pilot answered in a sweet, clear voice: "They say so, Bruce. But you are not afraid?"

Bruce kept his eyes on his face and answered with grave hesitation:

NEED A DIKE

People of Metropolis are Preparing a Petition to Congress

They Want to Throw the Current of the River to the Illinois Side.

A petition is being signed by the manufacturing concerns, business men and others at Metropolis, Ill., asking that the government build a wing dike on the Kentucky side of the river opposite Metropolis for the purpose of throwing sufficient current to the Illinois side of the river to prevent the river's filling up and destroying the boat landing there.

The petition will be addressed to congress, and it is claimed by the people of Metropolis that their own congressman will do all in his power to have the rivers and harbors committee authorize the improvement, and will have the co-operation of the Kentucky congressman.

It is claimed that great damage has been done in past years to the landing there by the mud, sand and silt deposited, and that if something is not done the harbor will become useless in the course of time.
